Center for Inquiry
Student Leadership Conference 2006
Travel/Registration Grant Application

Please return along with your registration form.

A limited number of travel and registration grants are available, based on need, to make sure every group can send a representative even if they lack the resources to do so. Additionally, we will work with students to set up ride shares and carpools or arrange for discount transportation to ensure that all interested students can attend with the lowest expense possible.

To apply for a travel or registration grant or to inquire about ride shares and carpools please fill out the fields below and indicate the level of assistance required.
